

Bhartiya City's Tour of Nilgiris

Bhartiya City had its 'Tour of Nilgiris 2013,' a cycling tour from December 16-23. A release from the company says, "This proved a perfect platform in synergy with Bhartiya City's pursuit of promoting outdoor sports like cycling. This is also reflected in the cycling tracks that are integral to Bharatiya Township in Bangalore." The integrated township, spanning 125-acres near Hebbal and envisioned the largest development within metro limits, joined hands with the sixth edition of Tour of Nilgiris 2013 (TFN). Commenting on the association, Arjun Aggarwal, CEO Bhartiya City said, "This was a great association for Bhartiya City given that TFN is one of the most prominent Cycling Tours of India. Bhartiya City is a passionate champion of cycling as we believe it promotes an eco-friendly lifestyle. Unlike any other township across the country, Bhartiya City is coming up with a world-class cycling track." MONTRA TFN 2013 witnessed 103 riders covering a distance of around 800+ kms across Karnataka, Kerala and Tamil Nadu, along with a special 'King of the Mountains' climb-up at Kalhatty (Ooty). Starting from Bangalore, cyclists pedaled through Mysore, Ooty, Sultan Bathery and Madikeri while passing through different terrains along three wildlife sanctuaries and splendid mountains of Western Ghats.
