

SOUTH INDIA'S LARGEST ANNUAL WINE & PERFORMING ARTS FESTIVAL AT BHARTIYA CITY.

A cultural treat this Sunday

Sumedh Singh Mandla and Manoviraj Khosla

South India's first wine and performing arts festival, The Great Grover Wine Festival by Grover Zampa Vineyards, offers a mix of art, music, beverages and great cuisine. It kicks off on Saturday, February 21, from 12 pm onwards at Bhartiya City. Along with tastings, guests can shop at the flea market and enjoy music performances, stand-up acts, karaoke and check out the display at the art gallery. The event will see a line-up of the city's finest music groups, including Swarathma, Ananth Menon & Trio and MadOrangeFireworks.

As a prelude to the festival, the organizers hosted a gathering to commence the merriment. It was attended by popular faces on the city's social circuit like Manoviraj Khosla, Anitha Kholay, Shalini and BNS Reddy. Sumedh Singh Mandla, (CEO, Grover Zampa Vineyards India) said, "We are extremely happy to announce the start of the festival and we are looking forward to entertaining the people of Bengaluru."

For tickets, log on to www.bookmyshow.com

DJ and Aarti

Wine festival

Fun in the sun

Grover Zampa Vineyards in association with Bhartiya City, Event Capital & Invision hosted 'The Great Grover Wine Festival' recently. It was a day of wine-tasting, grape stomping, live performances, shopping and many more fun activities. The festival had an exciting mix of music, wine and much more and was attended by many.

The wine and food-lovers exchanged great conversations and enjoyed good music, food, shopping and grape stomping. The flea market was buzzing with people who flocked the stalls. There was a wide range of charming items for sale. The day-long festival also had various captivating performances by renowned artistes like 'Swarathma', 'Ananth Menon & Trio' and 'MadOrangeFireworks'.

A wine tasting session in progress.

The festival was attended by many, who mingled with each other over wine, music and delectable delicacies.

Commenting on the festival, Sumedh Mandla, CEO, Grover Zampa Vineyards, said, "We are delighted to create this grand wine and performing art festival and to showcase our award-winning wines to wine-lovers. The event gave us an opportunity to celebrate our success with our patrons and provide a relaxed day out with an array of fun-filled activities aimed at rejuvenating and providing a learning experience with wines." Guests enjoyed the relaxing day at the picturesque venue along with some great food and beverage.

JOYFUL Guests stomping the grapes.

THE GREAT GROVER WINE FESTIVAL

The Great Grover Wine Festival will provide guests with a wide range of unique experiences. There will be a performance by Swarathma and a stand-up comic act by Praveen Kumar.

When: February 21, 12 pm onwards
Where: Bhartiya City, Thanisandra Main Road

Wine fest

'The Great Grover Wine Festival' will be held at Bhartiya City on February 21.

The festival will feature 'Swarathma', Anantha Menon & Trio, karaoke by Sabrina, stand-up by Praveen Kumar and DJ Varun.

FESTIVAL

WINE AFFAIR: This weekend is going to be all about wining at the Great Grover Wine Festival. But besides sipping on some yummy wines, there's music, good food and lots more. Bhartiya City, February 21, 12pm to 10pm

THE GREAT WEEKEND WINE FESTIVAL

Make your way to Bhartiya City to take part in the second day of the Great Grover Wine Festival. Featuring wine tastings, grape stomping, live band performances, flea markets and much more, this event takes off from 1 pm onwards.

Kartikya, Aashima, Nathalie, Priya, Suruchi and AD

Wine weekend

Bhartiya City came alive with the city's wine aficionados sampling some fine wines on the weekend at The Great Grover Wine Festival. The wine and performing arts festival also saw a host of fun activities like grape stomping, art gallery, flea market and performances by Ananth Menon & Trio, Karaoke by Sabrina, Standup by Praveen Kumar and closing act by DJ Varun.

Tanya and Zakira

Sakshi and Shubangini

Karishma and Himanshu

on 22nd Feb
2015